

Understanding Jesus and the Cross of Calvary

A Compilation by Allan Ask – August 2025

Website: <https://www.truedino.com/>

Email: truedino@yahoo.com

The Love of God Expressed Through the Cross of Calvary if Seen in the Right Way! Read on to Understand!

A brief explanation of the Cross of Calvary and how it relates to each person today. But first, some necessary background leading up to the Cross of Calvary Event.

God the Creator is holy both morally in His actions and thoughts and in His essence. God is a personal being and separate from His Creation. God can never do wrong or tempt someone to do wrong, James 1 v 13-15. He is unblameable in every way. The 10 commandments, in the book of Exodus 20 v 1-17, as well as other scriptures such as Galatians 5 v 19-21 reveal his standard of holiness or righteousness.

God chose to create “free willed” beings even though He knew his Creation would choose to disobey and go their own way. That disobedience happened in the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve around 6,000 years ago. The result was a broken relationship with God. God had to withdraw His Spirit from the hearts of Adam and Eve. Adam and Eve’s offspring were now born in a fallen sinful state i.e. a broken relationship with their Creator. Listen to King David as he lamented his fallen sinful condition and waywardness in Psalm 51 v 1-5.

Psalm 51 v 1-5

1 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

For the record God heard David’s prayer and did forgive and cleanse him! David was forgiven as he Biblically repented and looked forward to the future Messiah’s payment for his sin on the Cross of Calvary! So there is hope for you and me!

The Apostle Paul who wrote most of the New Testament also lamented his fallen flesh and waywardness, he said, “no good thing dwelleth in me!”.

Romans 7 v 18, 19

18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

The Apostle Paul also later rejoiced that through the indwelling Holy Spirit he could mortify the fleshly desires, so all was not lost!

Contributing to that disobedience in the Garden of Eden was a fallen angel named Lucifer (Satan). In God’s creation of angels there was also a rebellion. Lucifer (the gifted angelic cherub who led worship in heaven) and a third of the angels chose to disobey and oppose God (Ezekiel 28 v 12-17 and Isaiah 14 v 12-16).

In the Garden of Eden God had given Adam and Eve only one prohibition; not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Lucifer spoke with Eve saying that God was lying to her about the prohibition to “not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil”. Satan said Eve would receive a blessing if she ate of the fruit of the tree. Satan said Eve could be like a god if she ate the fruit; gaining special wisdom and knowledge. Eve was deceived and believed Lucifer and fell with that transgression. (Genesis chapter 3)

The whole scene looks pretty bad doesn't it? Lucifer had won a major victory over the human race. The fallen condition of each person and the waywardness it brings has been a nightmare of sin and bad behaviour ever since.

But God in this hopeless situation conveyed that there was a solution to undo what had happened in the Garden of Eden. A glimmer of hope was provided by God to Adam and Eve and to each of their descendants! (Genesis 3 v 15 and Genesis 49 v 10). A Messiah would be sent to undo what happened in the Garden of Eden.

You see God is both Holy and Loving. God in eternity past had already come up with a way that he could be both “just” and “loving” when his Creation disobeyed. Oh the infinite wisdom of God!

Each one of us, if we are honest with ourselves have violated God's holiness and moral boundaries. Each one of us have incurred what is called a “debt of sin” in God's courtroom with our disobedience. This wrong behaviour triggers God's justice requirement. Sinful actions are firstly directly against God as disobedience to God's revealed moral will. God has said that a debt of sin requires the person's death both physical and spiritually and separation from Him forever! This justice decree is unchangeable. Someone must pay that debt of sin incurred in God's courtroom!

Let's digress a bit and look at what transgressions incur a “debt of sin”. Remember that God has to show us our fallen sinful condition so we will forsake our own ways and look to the Cross of Calvary.

The 10 Commandments in Exodus 20 v 1-17 (God's covenant with Israel but the principles apply to all people) and the fruit of our fallen nature in Galatians 5 v 19-21 reveal the problem. These verses show how in thought, word and deed we incur a “debt of sin”. One other principle is that when we practice a particular sin such as drunkenness or drug abuse as two examples, God says we become a “slave of that sin” which eventually destroys us!

John 8 v 33-36

33 They answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant (slave) of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

Galatians 3 v 22-25 reads,

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. (God's moral law shows us our sin nature)

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. (we are no longer under the Old Testament law covenant but now under the new Grace covenant)

Exodus 20 v 1-7 and 12-17 read,

1 And God spake all these words, saying,

2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. (basically cursing and swearing)

12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill. (premeditated murder of an innocent person not defending your country in war or the justice system taking a life for a life taken)

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery. (sexual unfaithfulness when in a marriage)

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour. (basically lying)

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

Galatians 5 v 19-21 reads,

19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication (sex outside of a married man and women), uncleanness, lasciviousness (publicly parading your sin before others),

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies (holding and teaching wrong ideas about the true God),

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. (practice these various sins as a pattern or way of life)

Recognizing your spiritual condition is a prerequisite to coming to the Cross of Calvary. I always like the testimony of Isaiah when He saw the Lord and then reflected on himself!

Isaiah 6 v 1-5 reads,

1 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the LORD sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

Isaiah had seen his inner self and his utter spiritual bankruptcy. He was ready to come to the Messiah who would pay for his sin in the future. And now comes the Good News!

You see, there is one way that a person can be pardoned in God's courtroom for their transgressions or "debt of sin". God's character of love is displayed here! If there was a sinless perfect human who would enter God's courtroom and could pay the debt of my sin, I could be pardoned. I could receive forgiveness and have a restored relationship with the Creator. Another term for this payment is "substitutionary atonement". Another in love, stood in my place and took the punishment that I deserved (shed His atoning blood as the final Passover Lamb). For God has said in Hebrew 9 v 22 ...without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sin!

If we think a bit deeper the question is; who was that person on the Cross of Calvary? The Bible says that the second person of the Holy Trinity entered creation and took on a human body. God the Son entered creation, giving sight to the blind, raising the dead, healing the lame, casting out demons, reading people's minds and motives, stopping the weather, resisting Satan's 40 days of temptation in the wilderness, correcting the Pharisees about the Law, affirming Adam and Eve, and affirming Noah's flood. God the Son gave true spiritual light to all who would receive it!

John the Baptist prepared the way of the Messiah. He called Israel to the water baptism of repentance.

Jesus lived a sinless life even though Lucifer and the Pharisees sought to entice Him to sin or disobey the law. Can you imagine the pressure continually put on Him?

God the Son as an innocent man had to endure a sham trial and crucifixion. Lucifer and the spiritual and political leaders of that time colluded in his death. But they had no idea that His death would actually seal their demise! You see Jesus came to pay that "debt of sin" in God's courtroom. This opened the door so that forgiveness and a restored relationship to God could be offered to every repentant sinner that would receive it! The greatest spiritual victory ever won had occurred on the Cross of Calvary. God the Father accepted that payment as fully satisfactory for the sin debt of the human race, for my sin debt! Because of who Jesus is, an infinite being, the grave could not hold Him and the third day He resurrected! There were over 500 eyewitnesses to His resurrection! (1 Corinthians 15 v 3-8)

Jesus now offers forgiveness, pardon, a new spiritual life, mental and emotional freedom, a immortal resurrection body and eternity with himself! But you must personally receive it in a state of Biblical repentance. You must agree with Him about your own personal debt of sin. This is Biblical repentance where you acknowledge that your sin is against God and by your life and behaviour you have led other people astray. Biblical repentance produces a willingness to turn from your sinful ways, agreeing to become his disciple (counting the cost), and being willing to abdicate the throne of your will to Him. To learn to follow His ways not your old ways!

Counting the Cost to come to Christ and follow Him!

Luke 14 v 26, 27, 33 Jesus speaking,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

In this state of mind and attitude you trust 100 percent in that love payment on the Cross of Calvary made for you! Upon trusting in this love payment you will receive Christ's righteousness deposited to your spiritual bank account and are "born again" by the Holy Spirit. His pardon provides, forgiveness of sin (past, present and future), freedom from the power of sin and Satan, and at the resurrection a new immortal body! Salvation also brings inner peace of mind and inner stability even though we are still in a world full of trials and tribulations.

You might have to ask Him to help you to get over your personal fears and reservations. We are all afflicted with fears, stubbornness and pride that greatly hinder us in coming honestly, humbly and contritely before God. I had to ask him to help me repent and trust which He did.

Many will want to bypass the Cross of Calvary and try their own path to God. In this way they can still be boss of their own lives. Combine that with Satan offering many different paths to God to deceive people and you have a world of spiritual confusion. But the true God doesn't accept these other paths nor "turning over a new leaf" nor "trying to reform yourself" nor trying to embark on a "program of self-improvement" for these paths do not deal with the "debt of sin". Forgiveness and change comes from the Cross of Calvary and a spiritual rebirth. Only the help of the Holy Spirit qualifies to produce good and acceptable spiritual fruit.

Can you imagine what was going through God the Son's mind when he was creating the world and all living things visible and not visible. He knew he would have to enter that creation as a man one day!! (Colossians 1 v 16)

A suggested prayer of Biblical Repentance and Biblical Faith in the Son of God

"Heavenly Father I come to you in the precious name of your Son. I know that I am a sinner by thought, word, and deed. I have lived my life for myself and not for you. I renounce my life of sin and selfishness. I trust in your Son's shed blood payment alone on the Cross of Calvary for my sin debt.

I receive your Son as my Saviour and Master. Forgive and cleanse me of my sins. I yield my will to the Holy Spirit. Make me the person that you want me to be! Amen"

A suggested Sanctification Prayer also.

"Heavenly Father in the name of your Son I ask that you would give me a teachable and humble spirit so I may understand your Word correctly.

Help me to renew my mind in the Word of God and to stay on the narrow path that leads to life!

Give me discernment to see and avoid the many false brethren, false teachers, false Apostles, false Prophets, false signs and wonders movements speaking in your name!

Help me to put on my spiritual armour daily per your command in Ephesians 6 v 10-18. Help me to abide in the Spirit and not quench the Spirit with sin and self-will!

When Satan reminds me of my past sins help me to not stay under his condemnation. Help me to quickly acknowledge my sin. Help me to point Satan to the shed blood of Jesus in payment for my sin! For the blood of Jesus cleanses from all sin! Amen!"

Jesus said he was the only door into Heaven! Other paths that claim to go to Heaven are counterfeit paths of spiritual darkness and mental deception! The Bible says the “fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom”.

Fear has the meaning of “taking seriously what God has said”. God is very very serious about the consequences of unrepented sin but is also very very serious about the provision of forgiveness! Don’t let Satan intimidate or deceive you or scare you away from the Cross of Calvary!

Don’t just live for the “brief and unsatisfying pleasures of sin for 70 years” but seek eternity!

It was said of Abraham that “he looked for a city whose builder and maker was God” declaring that he was but a “pilgrim passing through this world of wilderness”! (Hebrews chapter 11)

By faith Moses eschewed the “pleasures of sin in Pharaoh’s court” and chose “to suffer affliction with the people of God”, seeing the invisible hand of the true God! (Hebrews chapter 11)

Matthew 10 v 28

28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

If you ignore or reject the Cross of Calvary you are saying to God “judge me by my works or life”. I will pay for my own sins! That sad event is recorded in Revelation 20 v 10-15. Please do not chose this path! Call upon Jesus to keep your name in the “book of life”!

Revelation 20 v 10-15

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

Supporting Scriptures

Acts 20 v 21

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 2 v 38

38 Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

2 Peter 3 v 5-9

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

Galatians 2 v 16

16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

Isaiah 26 v 3

Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

Romans 5 v 1-21

1 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Colossians 1 v 13-22

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unproveable in his sight: